Terms of Heritage Uniform Rental Agreement

- The Responsible Guider ensures adequate care and handling of the heritage uniform collection
- Transportation costs are the responsibility of the renter.
- The uniforms you are going to use are NOT replaceable; we ask that you follow these simple rules so that they will stay useable for future "Guiding events".
  - Check all uniforms when you receive them to make sure all pieces are there.
  - If any pieces are missing or damaged immediately report this to the staff at Manitoba Council
  - Do not alter in any way e.g. hem, move buttons etc.
  - Not to be worn while eating or serving food.
  - Make sure all uniform pieces are hung on appropriate hangers after use and the accessory bag for each uniform is attached to the hanger.
  - If there has been any staining, tearing or buttons missing after use please put in writing when you return them, so it will receive our immediate attention.

I agree to the terms of this rental agreement:
